Sioux County Democrats to Hold Caucuses on Feb. 2

The Iowa Democratic Caucuses for people residing in Sioux County will take place Monday, Feb. 2, at 7 p.m. at the Sioux Center Public Library.

Democrats from all precincts in Sioux County will meet at the library. Doors will open at 6:15 p.m., and people must be in line or signed in by 7 p.m. to participate.

This year's caucuses will kick off organizing for the 2026 midterm elections and focus on building the Sioux County Democratic Party. Attendees will elect delegates to the county convention, choose new members for the county party's Central Committee, and discuss and adopt proposed resolutions to be added to the county platform.

Any resident of Sioux County who is eligible to vote in the November 2026 general election and who is a registered Democrat may participate in the Sioux County Democratic Caucuses. This includes those who will be 18 on or by Nov. 3, 2026. At the caucus, attendees can update their current registration, change their party affiliation, and register to vote for the first time. Young people who are at least 13 years old, but who won't be 18 on or before Nov. 3, are invited to attend as a Youth Observer.

“The Caucuses are a time to do important work, as well as to be encouraged by meeting others who share your values, perspectives, and hopes for our country,” says Anita Cirulis, chair of the Sioux County Democrats. “Now, more than ever, it’s vital to actively participate in our democracy.”
